

How God Judges Men, part 2

Romans 2:6-11

A photograph of two farmers, a man and a woman, working in a rice field. The man, in the foreground, is wearing a white shirt and shorts, and is using a sickle to harvest rice. The woman, behind him, is wearing a red shirt and a white cloth draped over her head. They are surrounded by rows of harvested rice stalks. The text "You Reap What You Sow" is overlaid in large yellow letters, and "Gal. 6:7-8" is overlaid in green letters below it.

God is Impartial

Deut. 10:17

1 Pet. 1:17

An artistic illustration featuring numerous golden scrolls and cylinders. Some are unrolled, showing faint text, while others are tightly rolled. They are arranged in a dynamic, floating composition against a deep blue background with soft, ethereal light rays. Two large, ornate golden cylinders with red gemstones at their ends are prominent in the foreground, emitting a bright, sparkling light. The overall effect is one of divine revelation and judgment.
