3 John 1:9 - 12

- Are these men church leaders?
- Is this a conflict at the leadership level?

Situation #1 – Pastor Ignores Truth

Our new pastor is ignoring what we believe. Help! I believe that the seventh day is on Sunday. There is a lot in the Bible about keeping the seventh holy. Now we have a younger pastor who wants to change this law so his friends can take a big part in the church. Help!

Situation #2 – Woman Pastor

We had the misfortune the other day of having to speak to our pastor about some of our concerns in the church. She just wouldn't listen. To everything we brought up, she countered with “I believe that I am led by the Holy Spirit and every decision I take is led by the Holy Spirit.” It was very difficult to get a breakthrough. My question is, “Do people intentionally set out to deceive people or does a spirit of deception control them so that they are totally unaware that what they are doing is unscriptural. Is this how cults are formed?”

Situation #3 – Fixed On Money

My pastor cannot preach a sermon without bringing up tithing and attendance. I believe that it's the church's job to care for the poor following the example in Acts, and I do give; but this has gotten to be a real spirit killer and it's affecting my ability to pay my own bills . . .

Situation #4 – Controlling Pastor

I would like to know how a church can function without bylaws? Our pastor has no idea of how to be a leader. He has asked ministers to leave the church because the minister and the pastor don't see eye to eye. Also, our pastor was not elected as a choice from the pastoral search committee. His mother-in-law nominated him and the majority ruled. Our pastor has now stated that any minister who was interviewed to be pastor by the pastor search committee can not preach at our church at any time. Is this a Christian attitude of forgiveness?

Situation #5 – Sin In The Pulpit

I am part of the board of elders in our church . . . our pastor turned out to be greedy for money, controlling every monetary activity. Most of the congregation confronted him and fought this issue, but he did not humble himself so 80% of the body left and started a different church. The assistant pastor took over and we thought that was a good idea until he ordained five more pastors, none of whom had been to Bible school. Our church was full of questions - Why were they just authoritative? The Lord revealed to us that our senior pastor was having an affair when the woman approached the elders. Our pastor admitted that he had sinned. Now it is up to the six elders and one assistant pastor to decide on what to do about this.

Situation #6 – Yielded To A Kiss

A co-pastor was tempted by a member of the church, and I know that he kissed her because she told me.
What must I do? Do I have to tell the lead pastor?

What Should Be Done?
